There are 300,000 people in the city of Buenos Ayres, one-third of whom are said to be Italians. They own over one-half the commercial houses in the city.

It seems to be a sort of Elijah year. In addition to "Elijah" Dowie, out West, a colored Elijah has put in an appearance in Texas, and the season is early yet.

Since the bubonic plague broke out in Capetown, South Africa, there have been 610 cases and 275 deaths. The assertion that rats do much to spread the disease is sustained by the discovery of the bacillus in many rats, over 5,000 of which have been killed in the warehouses of Capetown.

Mr. T. F. Browning, of Greenfield, Ohio, has invented a netting to place under burning buildings to rescue people who cannot be reached. Firemen weighing 150 pounds have jumped into it from fifth and sixth stories of buildings with perfect safety. It is said to be a success and can be brought into use in a few minutes.

It is proposed to levy a tax of 10 per cent. on the output of the South African gold mines to help defray the expenses of the war. That's right. The war was for them and they should help pay the bill. But the diamond mines should also be included for Cecil Rhodes was one of the active factors in forcing the war and he is largely interested in the diamond mines.

As showing the money in irrigation Prof. Meade, an expert on such matters, told the Industrial Commission that irrigation ditches had increased the value of land in the dry sections of Louisiana and Texas from $5 to $50 or $100 an acre. He estimates the number of such ditches in this country at about 75,000, which cost about $200,000,000.

Col. Hemphill, of the Atlanta Constitution, told the Northerners who were in that Southern Industrial Convention, at Philadelphia, that there is Georgia land which has produced 119 bushels of shelled corn to the acre, 800 bushels of sweet potatoes, and three and five bales of cotton. They might not have believed him if they didn't know he is a reputable newspaper man.

CHURCHES SUNDAY.

At Which Distinguished Divines and Scholars Preached and Lectured.

SPLENDID SPECIAL MUSIC.

Each Service Was Largely Attended and Greatly Enjoyed—Brilliant Sermons and Able Addresses Were Delivered by the Visitors.

Sunday possessed more than passing interest to church-goers, as many of the Teachers' Assembly's most prominent members, who are among the Old North State's brightest sons, filled the city pulpits. The attendance at each service was very large and several of the churches had special music for the occasion.

Especially attractive were the services at the First Baptist Church, where in the morning Rev. R. T. Vann, D. D., president of the Baptist Female University, Raleigh, delivered the sermon and Prof. E. Walter Sykes, Ph. D., of Wake Forest College, spoke at night. At the evening service there was special music by a select quartette—Mrs. F. H. Muse, Miss Nellie Platt and Messrs. Lonnie Williford and A. S. Holden.

Dr. Sykes' lecture was a literary gem, being a discourse on "The Battle of Life," while of special interest were the remarks of Dr. Vann, who spoke of the great work the Baptists of the State are doing this year for their North Carolina colleges. He laid particular stress upon the movement afoot to raise $100,000 to endow their colleges, and of which amount half is to go to the university at Raleigh.

Upon conclusion of Dr. Vann's remarks a subscription was called for in order to complete the First Baptist Church's apportionment of the endowment fund, $450. The amount was raised in a very short time.

At the Brooklyn Baptist Church Drs. Vann and Sykes again officiated, the former at night and the latter in the morning. There, too, Dr. Vann confined his remarks to the "Education of the Baptists of North Carolina" and succeeded in arousing great interest in his subject Dr. Sykes' sermon was a very strong one, being delivered on the theme, "The Church Militant." In his introductory remarks he showed that life is one great battle and has to be fought industrially, politically, intelectually and spiritually.

The two sermons by visiting ministers at Grace M. E. Church were exceedingly able ones. Prof. J. F. Bivins, D. D., of Trinity Park High School, Durham, preached at 11 A. M. Rev. T. N. Ivey, editor Raleigh Christian Advocate, preached at night. Their sermons were true utterances of great truths of the Scriptures, and were appreciated by the large congregations that heard them. It is rare that two more delightful sermons are heard in our city. The vocal solo by Miss Ella Newman, of Knoxville, at the morning service was highly enjoyable.

The morning and evening services at Fifth street M. E. Church were also conducted by Drs. Bivins and Ivey, the latter delivering a powerful sermon on the "Temptation of Jesus," and the former delivering one equally as strong on the "Christian Intervie w with Simon Peter after Jesus' Resurrection."

The music at both services was of a high order, and especially delightful was a solo by Mrs. Parker.

At St. John's Episcopal Church, Rev. Theodore D. Bratton, D. D., rector of St. Mary's Church, preached an exceptionally interesting and able sermon, selecting his text, "The Testimony of Nature Based on a God," from Acts, 14th chapter, 17th verse.

The men's meeting at the Young Men's Christian Association, which was largely attended, was conducted by Prof. Sykes, who made an excellent and logical address.

The religious exercises at Wrightsville Beach were also very attractive. In the morning, Rev. A. A. Marshall, D. D., of Raleigh, one of our most distinguished visitors, preached to quite a large and appreciative congregation, and in the afternoon a sacred concert was given at the Seashore Hotel by the hotel's superb orchestra.

Opening of the Oceanic Hotel.

To morrow night the Oceanic Hotel at Carolina Beach will open in all its glory. The opening will be an enjoyable affair as there is going to be a big dance and many other forms of amusement.

The steamer Wilmington will make a delightful moonlight trip to the beach, leaving the city at 7:30 o'clock in the evening and returning at midnight.

Death of a Little One.

A GAME OF FREEZE OUT.

Alderman Bailey Can't Even Obtain Newbern Ice.

It looks as though the "iceman" is trying to freeze the aldermen out for sure; at least one particular alderman, Mr. E. P. Bailey. The trouble that Mr. Bailey and other aldermen have experienced in getting, or rather not getting, ice has already been told our readers, but yesterday there was another turn of the wheel. Mr. Bailey was refused ice from the ice factory at Newbern, but why the refusal, he does not know. It happened in this wise: Friday Mr. Bailey sent a mail order to Newbern for one hundred pounds of ice, enclosing sixty cents in stamps, the price asked for the amount of ice desired. Yesterday he received a letter from the factory, stating that they could not supply him and returning the stamps. No reason was assigned for the action. Inference can be drawn if desired.

The early part of last week Mr. Bailey obtained ice from Newbern, but it was through another party.

New Hats for the Reliables.

Our "finest," if the weather be fair, for of course we can't christen new raiment unauspiciously, will make their appearance to-day decked out in brand new hats, made especially for them and of the best quality possible by the French Police Supply House, of New York city. The hats, which are beauties and quite stylish, arrived yesterday. The officers will sport caps of a dark blue, while the privates will all look "handsome" in black felt hats, attractively set off by small gold cord bands and tassels.

A. & M. Examination Next Month.

Young men who wish to stand the entrance examination for the Agricultural and Mechanical College need no longer go to Raleigh to do so, but can save all expense by being examined here. Such has been the notice received by Prof. Washington Catlett, superintendent of public instruction, from Dr. Geo. C. Winston, president of the college.

Prof. Catlett has already received the examination papers and will give all applicants a trial the 11th of next month.

Complimentary Words.

Prof. J. A. Hall, of Oak Ridge Institute, says: "Wrightsville Beach has proved the best place at which we have ever met." He also complimented very highly Manager Hinton and the clerks of the Seashore Hotel. The Teachers' Assembly passed the following: "Resolved. That it gives us pleasure to express our obligations to the management of the Seashore Hotel for liberal rates, excellent service and kind treatment."

OLD MAN MURDERED.

Mr. Gaston Price Found Dying in His Store Not Far From the City.

WITH HIS HEAD CRUSHED.

Robbery Supposed to be the Motive of the Crime—A Chest in Which He Kept His Money Found Broken Open and Plundered—No Clue.

One of the foulest deeds in the annals of crime in North Carolina was committed Sunday night at Navassa, the site of the Navassa Guano Company's large plant, about four miles from the city and situated in Brunswick county. The crime, horrible both in preparation and execution, was a two-fold one, burglary and murder, and in both instances Mr. Gaston Price, who has been numbered among our best citizens for many years, was the victim.

The story of the diabolical deed is as follows:

Mr. Price for a number of years, up to about the 28th of February, was in the employ of the Navassa Guano Company. Subsequently, being well and favorably known at Navassa, he opened up a refreshment stand there, using for that purpose the front room of his residence, which contains three rooms and is the third house from the Cape Fear river bridge. Sunday Mr. Price was at his residence and was seen well and hearty about 8 o'clock that night. However, a negro, Henry Moore, passed the house several hours later, about 10.30 o'clock, and had his attention arrested by hearing Mr. Price groaning, but not noticing anything suspicious and thinking that the old gentleman was either groaning in his sleep or slightly ill, continued on his way.

Yesterday morning the colored cook, Caroline Waddell, reported at the Price residence for duty, but could not get in. Upon hearing her employer groaning she at once became frightened and gave the alarm at the Navassa factory. Messrs. L. L. Boone, J. C. McEachern and C. W. Stewart went immediately to the house and upon finding the doors and windows locked and hearing Mr. Price groaning broke in the front door and discovered the ghastly crime.

Mr. Price was lying on his back a few feet from the door, unconscious, his face bathed in blood, and his skull cracked in at several points, while on the floor not far away was a bloody axe and a hoe handle about four feet long, the assassins' weapons. The motive for the terrible deed was plainly apparent, as everything in the house was in a chest and a trunk, both being broken open and rifled.

The three gentlemen acted promptly in the matter and notified the coroner of this county, Dr. C. D. Bell, who had the injured man brought to the city and conveyed to the City Hospital, where he and Dr. A. H. Harriss did all in their power to save life, but their efforts were of no avail and at 4.10 o'clock in the afternoon Mr. Price passed away without for one moment regaining consciousness.

The remains were prepared for burial and then conveyed to Mr. J. F. Woolvin's undertaker's establishment, where, at 10 o'clock this morning, Coroner Bell will impanel a jury and hold the necessary inquest.

The funeral will be held at 3.30 o'clock this afternoon from the residence of Mr. C. W. Stewart, 420 Red Cross street, and all members of Cape Fear Lodge No. 2, of which the deceased was a member, his membership dating back to 1879, are ordered to attend in a body.

Mr. Price was well known and highly thought of here. He came to Wilmington about 1869 on the revenue cutter Moccasin and has lived here or hereabouts ever since. His birth place is Johnston county this state, and this month he celebrated his 65 birthday. He was a step-father of our well known townsman, Mr. C. W. Stewart, and of Mr. Walter Stewart, of Philadelphia.

The motive for the murder was conclusively robbery and was, no doubt, planned carefully and in a cold blooded manner. From all indications Mr. Price was just getting ready to retire when the assassins knocked on the front door of the house. Thinking that it was a customer and never for once suspecting that danger was lurking near, he unlocked the door and admitted his visitors, whom in all probability he recognized and spoke a friendly word to. Turning, he must have started to lead the way into the store when the assassins' blows fell, for he was found only a few feet from the door. The assassins then commenced their work of plunder, but first coolly shutting and locking the door, while the stricken man struggled in agony on the floor, for the manner in which he turned himself over and around was plainly evident. After accomplishing their two fold diabolical object the assassins departed, locking the door after going out of the house and throwing the key away in the back yard, where it was found yesterday morning.

Just what the robbery amounts to is not definitely known, as it is not known how much money Mr. Price had in the store at the time, but it is certain he had change to the amount of about $15. He also sold a piece of property about the 1st instant to Jas. B. Elkin and wife for $400, but whether or not he had this amount in the house is not known.

It is said that a short while ago Mr. Price was waylayed and robbed on the Navassa road of a sum of money.

There is yet no clue to the crime, but tracks were discovered around the house.

Mr. Price's skull was crushed at several places and the entire length of the base.

Under the enactment of the last Legislature the Pension Board of the county met yesterday afternoon to pass upon applications. SEABOARD TRAIN DELAYED.

Heavy Rain Caused Several Washouts Along the Line Yesterday.

The heavy rain played havoc with the Seaboard Air Line yesterday between here and Wadesboro. The through train from Charlotte, due to arrive about noon yesterday did not reach the city until this morning about 12.30 o'clock. This train was delayed at several places along the line on account of washouts and the track being awash. The first obstacle it encountered was at Sand Hill, near Hamlet, where it had to remain for a number of hours on account of a washout. After getting passage over this part of the road, another stop was necessary near Phœnix, where a washout occurred late in the afternoon. Luckily the west-bound train yesterday afternoon escaped this last washout.

The rain was exceedingly heavy all along the line and at some points the track is said to have been under water for more than 200 feet.

About a score of passengers were aboard the belated train, among whom were A. W. McLean, Lumberton; T. B. Gibson, McColl, S. C.; J. J. Gledhill, Chicago; Archie Palmer, Baltimore; C. S. McColl, C. M. Weathley, J. M. Jackson and D. D. McColl, Bennettsville, S. C.

Another washout occurred near Wadesboro and delayed the Atlanta special.

Died Sunday Morning.

Mrs. Annie Matthews, wife of Mr. D. E. Matthews, of near Wilson, died Sunday morning at the city hospital. She was married several years ago and leaves a husband and a little boy, besides many other relatives, among whom are Mrs. M. E. Keathley, Mrs. Wm. Best and Mrs. Stien, of this city.

Mrs. Matthews was Miss Annie Glisson before her marriage. She was postmistress at Magnolia for eight years.

The remains were carried to Magnolia yesterday morning where they were interred, Rev. Calvin S. Blackwell officiating.

The following gentlemen were pall bearers here: Messrs. Jno. R. Hanby, William Hooper, Wallace Alderman, E. S. Lathrop and Sam Burtt. Several relatives from here accompanied the remains to their last resting place.

NO GAMES YESTERDAY

On Account of the Rains, Which Were Here, There and Everywhere.

LUCK MAY BE BETTER TO-DAY

And Perhaps We'll Have Several Two-Baggers—Rain or No Rain the Horse Editor Has a Few Remarks to Make to the Ball Cranks.

WHERE THEY PLAY TO-DAY.

Raleigh at Newport News.
Wilmington at Portsmouth.
Richmond at Norfolk.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

	Won.	Lost.	Per cent
Wilmington	32	22	.593
Newport News	30	22	.577
Norfolk	28	24	.538
Raleigh	27	27	.500
Portsmouth	24	29	.453
Richmond	17	34	.333

The heavy rains throughout North Carolina and Virginia cut the base ball games off all 'round yesterday and the teams had nothing to do all day but rest on their oars.

There is nothing new in local circles. It was rumored on the street yesterday that Wilmington was to get another pitcher to make a quartette of twirlers, but invuiry of the officials got a denial of the report. The directors state that there will not be an addition to our present trio of box performers.

A Good Day for Washouts, But Bad for Baseball.

— If the Giants take four of the six games with Portsmouth and Norfolk this week they will be doing well.

— Umpire Upchurch, who has been on leave of absence, has been ordered to be in readiness to report for duty.

— The snake editor of the Raleigh Post doesn't like "lobsters." He is content to gorge himself with mock Turtle soup.

— No team is well equipped with less than four pitchers. The Giants have but three. Emergencies must be provided for.

— High, the champion pitcher of Newport News, has been "sold" to the Crescent team, of New Orleans for $500 Good pitchers come High.

— Yesterday was a great day for the Turtles at Newport News. They couldn't play ball, but they had a splendid opportunity to take a bath.

— Rain "shut out" the game between Portsmotuh and Wilmington yesterday. With good weather they may play a two-bagger to-day or to morrow.

— The Giants will meet a hard proposition at Norfolk the last three days of this week. The Skippers have strengthened their team materially since they played in Wilmington.

— Stanley's the most valuable man the Turtles have. He pitches twice a week and plays in center field four times a week. His fine work at the bat is thus utilized in every game.

— With the encampment at Wrightsville from July 10th, to August 10th, and several excursions over the railroads to this city, there should be large crowds to see many of the games at Hilton Park.

— The ornithological of the Raleigh Post, after noting that Person struck out nine men here Saturday and yet lost the game, says: "Strike-outs do not win games and cut a very small figure in the result, though some of our contemporaries incline to think otherwise."

— The horse editor grieves over the attenuated appearance of the baseball department this morning. Last night when he ascertained there would be no news from Portsmouth except "game postponed," he began bellowing the old song "I'm lonely to night, love, without you."

The Financial Feature.

The Richmond Times: The Richmond club is now on a sound financial basis, and under the business direction of Captain C. H. Phillips promises to go through the season with credit. Manager Kain will have exclusive charge of the players and has already set about strengthening the team.

From the outlook at this time there seems to be no doubt that the league will make some money this season. There will be no large sums made. The North Carolina clubs will probably lead in this respect, with Richmond next, Newport News and Norfolk will hold their own and Portsmouth will probably come out even.

Campbell Encampment Elected Officers.

Campbell Encampment No. 1, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, had a big time last night. The Royal Purple Degree was conferred on six candidates, after which refreshments were served and all present, of course, had a good time.

The following officers were also elected, to be installed next month:

C. P.—H. W. Smith.
H. P.—W. L. Smith.
S. W.—C. C. Chadbourn.
J. W.—J. E. Wood.
Treas.—N. Jacobi.
Scribe.—W. H. Howell.

Incendiary Fire This Morning.

About 1:30 o'clock this morning a telephone fire alarm was sent in and was occasioned by fire being discovered in a small one-story frame house on Second street, opposite Cowan's fivery stables, and which is used as a restaurant. The fire, which was of incendiary origin, was discovered by Mr. J. W. Brown, of the stables, and but for his prompt action would have resulted seriously. He broke in the front door of the house, and with the aid of the stable hands quickly extinguished the flames. But little damage was done.

Formal Opening Probably Friday Night.

It is very probable that the formal opening of the Atlantic Yacht Club will take place Friday night. If this be so, a rare treat can be looked forward to, for the Atlantic Club has an enviable reputation for the delightfulness of its entertainments, especially the openings. Of course, as of yore, there will be a big dance and members of the other clubs will be present to swell the fun.

TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 18.

"BENEVOLENT" VS. "COMMERCIAL" ASSIMILATION.

The Southern convention which met in Philadelphia last week threw a good deal of light on the industrial progress of the South and on Southern resources. Well informed speakers told what the South had done and is doing in industrial development, what she has had to contend against and what she needs to meet the full measure of her possibilities. One of the aids on which much stress was laid is an isthmian canal to give her readier access to the markets on both shores of the Pacific and the countries lying between them. One of the speakers on this subject was Hon. Sewell Cobb, of Pensacola, Fla., who gave good reasons why the canal should be constructed and among other things said:

"Five hundred and fifty millions of of people in the far East for half a century have entreated us to open a highway through the narrow strip of land that connects the two great continents of America, but we have had at the helm of the ship of state men of limited maritime information, and a deaf ear has been turned to their requests. When our military arm sought opportunity for promotion (in rank) our officials rushed to a conflict with a people of less than 10,000,000 in population, and already have expended in the effort to innoculate them with 'benevolent assimilation' upward of $300,000,000 and countless lives. This money expended in the other process, 'commercial assimilation,' would have constructed the Nicaragua Canal and established lines of steamships numbering not less than 100, each of 5,000 tons capacity, carrying our own products.

"The twentieth century calls for human advancement. We are the South learned at the close of the war that if we would develop our resources the military arm must be subservient to the civil authority."

The five hundred and fifty millions of people on the Asiatic side haven't been half as much interested in this canal as the seventy-six millions in this country are, but their desires have had about as much influence on our statesmen as the desires of our people have had. The South is more interested in the construction of this canal than the North is, because it would give the South exceptional advantages in exporting her products, and in this fact, perhaps, lies the reason for the dilly-dallying that has characterized the proceedings of Congress in dealing with that question. If its construction was as essential to the North as it is to the South, the obstacles in the way would have been very soon removed and the money necessary for the work would have been appropriated long ago. The Pacific Railroads could not have kept a lobby strong enough in Congress to have held it up to this time.

The thoughts of Mr. Cobb seem to have been centered on the five hundred and fifty millions of people in the far East, and so seem to be the thoughts of a good many who favor and are anxious to see this waterway opened. Of course this cut through the isthmus barrier would give us a decided advantage in our trade on that side, which may and doubtless will be largely increased, but are they not overestimating the prospective proportions of that trade and overlooking a field which may ultimately be of much more importance and value to us than that of the far East?

As we see it one of the strongest arguments for the construction of that canal is the advantage it will give us in trading with the countries of Central and South America, which are growing, being developed and increasing in population annually. There has been for some years a large immigration into some of these countries, with indications of a continued flow, which will largely augment the populations in the near future, and with people who are liberal buyers. The money being invested in enterprises of development will add to their wealth and make them still better customers, far better in time than Asia, with its millions will be, for several reasons.

At the commencement exercises of Columbia University last week, a friend of its president, Seth Low, donated $100,000 to establish a chair in the University for the study of the Chinese language. President Low accepted the gift (such gifts are seldom declined) and expressed some rainbow views on the future of American commerce with the yellow nations. In commenting upon his acceptance, the Baltimore Sun remarks as follows, and gives some reasons why the importance of the Asiatic trade of America is overestimated by the visionaries. It says:

"In accepting this gift President Low spoke of China as a country from which the United States is separated 'only by quick ferry across a Pacific hereafter to become in large measure a Chinese-American sea.' Then, with the eye of the prophet, Mr. Low peered into the future and saw Uncle Sam doing a phenomenal business with the Chinese—a trade amounting to 'billions annually.' Possibly President Low has had a revelation on this subject, and speaks with authority. Experts who have only ordinary sources of information do not take as cheerful a view of the subject. The United States now exports less than $1,500,000,000 annually of its manufactures and farm products to all the nations of the world. The Chinese take a very small fraction of this amount—scarcely one-fiftieth of it, in fact. In order to buy billions of dollars' worth of American products yearly ware conditions in the Chinese Empire must undergo a radical transformation. A few cents a day represents the earnings of the average Chinaman and he has been content with this trifling remuneration for centuries. How such a population is to spend billions of dollars annually in buying American goods passes comprehension.

"American optimists imagine that it will be easy for the United States to monopolize the trade of China. They seem to overlook the fact that Japan has developed its industries and is seeking a market in China. Russia is building a railroad system which will enable its merchants and manufacturers to compete in the Chinese market with any European or American rival. Russia's industrial development may be slow, but its farseeing statesmen look ahead confidently to a time when Russian industrial supremacy will extend over all Asia. Great Britain and Germany are also seeking to extend their trade with the Chinese. And when the industrial awakening of China comes the Chinese may be able to supply their own home market and have a surplus for export. It will probably be many a century before Uncle Sam's trade with China amounts to billions of dollars annually.

We have heretofore expressed views similar to these in discussing this question. There are about 40,000,000 of people in Japan, which from necessity must become a manufacturing and trading nation. The capacity her people have shown for both has been one of the marvels of the age. No country has ever so completely revolutionized itself in so short a period. What she has done is an indication of what she can do. The nation that competes with her for Eastern trade will have to hustle.

Russia has a population of over 100,000,000 and an immense territory, with resources to sustain diversified industries. And with that she has railroad transportation across the continent, connecting her capital with her ports on the Pacific. Trade was at the bottom of that enterprise. These are the two principal competitors that our traders will have to meet in the markets of the far East, and it is folly to suppose that they are going to let the American trader have the larger part of the traffic.

Better, while keeping a business eye upon the far East and working it for all it is worth, keep both eyes on the countries South of us and work for the possibilities there are in them.

PRODUCTIVE SOILS.

In the meeting of Southern business men in Philadelphia last week in speaking of the possibilities of agriculture in the South Colonel Hemphill, of Atlanta, said that he could show where one acre of land in his State had produced 119 bushels of shelled corn, where one acre had produced 800 bushels of sweet potatoes, and where on one acre three bales of cotton and on another five bales had been produced. These were all phenomenal yields, and, of course, were the result of special effort and thorough culture.

According to our recollection the five bales referred to were raised on land not far from Atlanta, and on land, too, which a few years before it fell into the hands of the young man who produced such an astonishing amount of cotton on one acre was considered poor land. He did it, of course, by building up the land by fertilizing and thorough intensive cultivation. We have read of yields of over two hundred bushels of corn in the ear to the acre, in South Carolina; of three bales of cotton, and of 1,300 bushels of Irish potatoes to the acre in this State, but these were on single acres and special effort was made to attain these results. But the fact that such results have been attained shows what may be done, and that it is not so much in the land as in the man who works it.

There is land in North Carolina which ten years ago would not produce ten bushels of wheat to the acre which will now produce more surely from thirty to forty bushels to the acre than it would then ten bushels. The methods which accomplish so much on one farm will do the same on other farms, if followed. There is no such thing as really "worn out" land, of which we have heard so much.

A rich young man in St. Louis who shucked his fine clothes and went into an iron foundry to learn the business, is getting lots of letters from women commending his pluck, and some offers of marriage. One is from a Canadian woman with $600,000, who also hints that she has a snug villa at Los Angeles, which she is willing to share worth him. The probabilties are that those admiring women had learned through the papers that this young man was rich.

A Toledo, Ohio, man recently made an incursion into Canada, where he bought a pencil. When he got back into Ohio he remembered that the customs house men didn't tackle him, and therefore he paid no duty on that pencil. This smote his conscience, and he sent the U. S. Treasury one cent the other day with the explanation. Think of an Ohio man toting a conscience like that around with him, and then think what he might do if he got a good chance.

A Northern town boasts of a female denizen 103 years old who does all her own housework. She has been at it so long that she has it down fine.

MODIFIED HIS VIEWS.

Mr. Seigfried, of France, who spent some time in this country recently, studying the industrial situation, had an interview with Mr. McKinley in which, when Mr. Seigfried told Mr. McKinley that he knew he was a "pronounced protectionist," he quotes him as replying:

"There you are not quite correct. I have in the last few years greatly modified my views on this subject. We have advanced a great deal in the United States, * * * so that now we are in a position to trade with foreign countries on a reciprocal basis."

There is no doubt that Mr. McKinley has modified his views very considerably on that question, as is shown by his recommendations in his messages, and by his talks on reciprocity, but he lacks the nerve to pursue the logical course and in resorting to the makeshift of reciprocity as a substitute for tariff reduction, simply because reciprocity can be so managed as to still give the protected interests all the protection they want, protection enough to keep out of our markets goods that might come into competition with the goods which they make.

The protected interests will favor that kind of reciprocity, and then they and the Republican party managers will claim this as tariff reduction and try to humbug the people with it. The reciprocity which they will favor will be about as much of a fraud as protection was.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—— President McKinley is a shrewd politician. His determination to run no more as a third termer will make him powerful friends instead of enemies, in his own party, especially in the senate. —Augusta Chronicle, Dem.

—— The question whether the trade of this country with Russia has suffered from Russian tariff retaliation because of our imposition of a duty on her sugar equal to the bounty she pays on all exported, is hardly worth the denial made by defenders of our tariff policy, because the figures for the year ending next March will tell you their own tale; but, it is folly to suppose that we can go on indefinitely excluding foreign goods from our markets and find foreign markets open to our goods.—Brooklyn Citizen, Dem.

It appears that some of our army officers in the Philippines who are not above vulgar trade have been driving quite a profitable contraband business in exporting hemp from closed ports. According to witnesses before a Court-martial, hemp to the value of $500,000 has been exported from these prohibited ports by a combination of officers and merchants within the past six months. This, doubtless, is some of that commercial expansion in the Philippines of which we hear so much.—Philadelphia Record, Dem.

—— Washington correspondents of several newspapers declare that the Administration is very indignant because some of the "confidential" information given the Cuban Commissioners by Secretary Root during the recent parley was divulged by the Cubans upon their return to Havana. The Administration thinks that the Cubans acted in bad faith. Perhaps: but the sight of the Administration protesting against bad faith is enough to make strong men weep.—Norfolk Landmark, Dem.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— Charlotte News: Capt. William B. Caldwell, a well known citizen of this county, died Friday evening at the residence of his son, Mr. J. S. Caldwell, at Huntersville. He was born in Catawba county, April 2, 1820.

— Tarboro Southerner: The Edgecombe farmer has bought more corn and meal this year than in many previous years. When accounts are balanced at the end of the year it will be found that the Western bread has made a perceptible hole in the profits.

— Kinston Free Press: Lieut. John Williams died at White Hall, Wayne county, Tuesday night, June 11th, aged about 68 years. He was a native of Lenoir county and moved to White Hall since the war. He was a gallant Confederate soldier. He was second lieutenant in Co. A 40th Regiment Heavy Artillery.

— Salisbury Truth-Index: Machinists are reaching here every day and are placed at work in the Southern shops at Spencer. While the new men are coming in in small numbers at a time, their coming is evidence that the railroad company considers all relations severed between it and its former employes. Shops at other points are being filled, and it is claimed by the company that no serious inconvenience has resulted by reason of their old employes quitting.

— Concord Standard: Mr. Morrison H. Caldwell has been hit by a stroke the like of which rarely selects for a target one of us who are so easily missed. A few days ago Dr. Dillon Brown, of New York, who has a country home near Yadkin Falls, wishing to spend the Summer in Canada, made Mr. Caldwell a present of a pair of splendid bay horses, well matched; a fine trap and a buggy, including two sets of good, fine harness; four Jersey cows, two calves and a Jersey bull, "Yadkin Chief," all registered stock, together with a $60 lot of grass seed and a $45 steel range.

— Fayetteville Observer: Deputy Sheriff Raynor went out to 71st Friday and arrested Dan McMillan, who, on the day before, struck Robt. Monroe on the head with a piece of scantling, causing a wound that may prove fatal. McMillan was found at work at Monroe's saw mill and made no resistance. He says he struck Monroe in self defence. —— Our readers will remember that we recently published an account of the arrest in Raleigh of W. J. Tyson on a charge of obtaining insurance money by fraud, falsely alleging that his wife was dead. On Friday Sheriff Burns received a warrant from Raleigh for the arrest of young A. M. Waddill, of this city, charging him with being a party to the fraud. Deputy Sheriff Monaghan arrested Waddill last night and he will be taken to Raleigh Monday. Waddill, who is brother of Tyson's wife, is charged with sending the telegram to Tyson announcing the death, in this city, of his wife, and which was used by Tyson with the insurance agents as proof of his wife's death and in obtaining the insurance money. Young Waddill says, in his defence, that he sent the telegram to Tyson in order to get him to come home and look after his family. Mrs. Tyson who, with her two children, live in Wilmington, when she heard of the fraud perpetrated by her husband, wrote to the insurance people in Raleigh notifying them that she was not dead.

Indian Repartee.

An Indian agent who was a militia colonel desired to impress the Indians with the magnitude of his dignity. He dressed himself in full uniform, with his sword by his side, and rising in the council told them that one reason why the great father had had so much trouble with his red children was that he had sent civilians to them.

"You are warriors," he said, "and when the great father saw me he said, 'I will send this man, who is a great warrior, to my red children, who are warriors, and they will hear his words.'"

An old chief arose and, surveying the speaker from head to foot, said calmly: "Since I was a small boy I have heard that white men have great warriors. I have always wanted to see one. I have looked upon one, and now I am ready to die."—"Reminiscences of the Bishop of Minnesota."

Dumas' Dramatic Intuition.

A story is told of the elder Dumas which illustrates his remarkable dramatic intuition. An eminent Parisian critic who sat beside him at a first performance noticed that he seemed abstracted.

"You are triste, my master," observed the critic.

"No," replied Dumas. "I'm not bored, but I'm somewhere else than here, so to speak. I am unable to follow any play to the end. I listen closely to the first act, and then my mind carries me off into thoughts of the play I would make of it."

THERE WASN'T ANY ROW.

It Was Simply a Case of Spontaneous Combustion.

He was a very young man, almost too young to be out on the street at that time of the night, 8:30 p. m., and his general appearance indicated that he had been picked up by a cyclone somewhere during his meanderings. He was not utterly demoralized, but there was something in his manner that would lead the close observer to the conclusion that all had not been well with him.

"Gee!" he exclaimed as he spun around the corner and went bump into a policeman.

"Hello," ejaculated that worthy, instinctively grabbing at him; "what's the row?"

"There wasn't any," responded the youth.

"What are you running like that for?" persisted the policeman.

"I've just been up against a case of spontaneous combustion."

"You look too green to burn," chuckled the bluecoat.

"It's on me, just the same. My girl lives around the corner, and I went to see her. I thought it was all"—

"Where does the combustion come in?" interrupted the officer.

"Come out, you mean," corrected the youth.

"Come off!" exclaimed the officer. "Tell me what the row is before I chase you."

"Well, that's what I'm trying to do," pleaded the boy. "The girl's old man and I don't harmonize a little bit, and when he met me at the door he fired me so suddenly that I had vertigo. If you don't call that spontaneous combustion, what the dickens do you call it?"

"Oh, excuse me," apologized the policeman, "you run along home and get into your trundle bed!" and the bluecoat gently wafted the remnant on its way.—Detroit Free Press.

Woeful Ignorance.

Farmer—See here, you! You remember putting two lightning rods on my barn last spring, don't you? Well, that barn was struck six weeks after and burned down.

Peddler—Struck by lightnin'?

"It was."

"In the daytime?"

"No; at night."

"Must 'a' been a dark night, wasn't it?"

"Yes; dark as pitch."

"Lanterns burnin'?"

"What lanterns?"

"Didn't you run lanterns up 'em on dark nights?"

"Never heard of anything like that."

"Well, if you don't know enough to keep your lightnin rods showin you needn't blame me. G-lang!"—New York Weekly.

The Conceited Peer.

A certain conceited nobleman once observed to Charles Townsend, "When I happen to say a foolish thing, I always burst out a-laughing." Townsend eyed him curiously and at length remarked in the most deliberate manner, "Ah, I envy you your happiness, for you must certainly live the merriest life of any man in Europe."

When you are invited to a real old fashioned woman's house for supper, she always has floating island. This is a sure test.—Atchison Globe.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, June 17.—To day's events in the cotton market were emphatically bullish. While the rise was started by Liverpool the New York market subsequently took the lead, only to be outdone by New Orleans late in the session. Shorts were badly frightened much of the day and covered on every easy period, finally turning with a rush in the afternoon. The opening was firm and four to seven points higher, and soon increased six to eight points. But within the first hour a set back occurred, cutting down the rise to two and four points. Profit taking and absence of investment support were responsible for the reaction. The cables portrayed a firm and higher market in Liverpool. Buying orders were sent to the pit here and did much to strengthen our market. News from the South Atlantic States was unfavorable and crop reports, too, were discouraging. The strong point of the day came about mid afternoon, when shorts lost their nerve, owing to the appearance of large New Orleans and other Southern buying orders. The West poured in orders for August, October and January. Wall street, the list in general and room bulls supported the market. Prices were very sensitive to this buying and worked to the highest level touched in many weeks. Trading was active and general, with public buying quite a feature. The advance carried July to 8.33, August 7.77, October to 7.41 and January to 7.43, after which there was a reaction of three to four points. Exporters were reported as bidders for enormous lines of good grade staple of which there was a scarcity. Fear that the public, which has been watching cotton very closely of late, would now turn to and purchase for a pronounced advance, greatly disturbed the shorts and did much to enthuse the room bulls. The market was finally steady with prices net nine to fourteen points higher.

HER SUMMONS CAME.

A SIGN IN WHICH MRS. GALLUP READ HER DEATH WARRANT.

She Dropped the Dishcloth and After That Fatal Warning Spent the Balance of the Evening In Telling Mr. Gallup How She Thought He Ought to Run the Funeral.

[Copyright, 1900, by C. B. Lewis.]

As Mr. Gallup lighted his tin lantern after supper and started out to buy half a pound of Rio coffee for breakfast and call at the postoffice Mrs. Gallup was in excellent spirits and had most of the dishes ready for washing. He was absent 32 minutes, and when he arrived home he found her huddled up in the big rocking chair, with a pillow behind her head and the camphor bottle in her hand. She took three long sniffs at the bottle and gave three long drawn sighs as he entered, but it was labor thrown away. Mr. Gallup blew out his lantern and hung it up behind the cellar door, and, having deposited the coffee on a shelf in the pantry, he removed and hung up his coat and hat, sat down and took off his shoes and then, taking a circular from his pocket and putting on his glasses with great deliberation, began to read. It was a circular regarding a new discovery in the cure of consumption, and he had not yet finished with the first testimonial when Mrs. Gallup sobbed four times in succession and faintly asked:

"Samuel Gallup, do you know that your dyin wife is present in the room?"

He made no reply. That testimonial from one who had been cured after his coffin had been purchased made him hold his breath as he read.

"Yes; she is present," dolefully continued Mrs. Gallup after several sniffs and you needn't—never go up there—and—and"—

HUDDLED UP IN THE BIG ROCKING CHAIR.

And when Mr. Gallup had finished the testimonials and fully determined to buy at least three bottles and hide them in the wood shed he rose up, yawned and stretched and looked around to find Mrs. Gallup asleep and the camphor wasted on the floor.

A Suggestion For a Safe Fuse.

It often happens that the farmer wishes to blow up a stump or a rock or other thing and is at a loss for a safe fuse. A train of gunpowder is too quick and other things too slow, all more or less uncertain and dangerous, says a Farm Journal correspondent, who therefore suggests the following: In a pint or more of water dissolve as much saltpeter as the water will take up. Then thoroughly soak some candle wicking (common white twine will do) in it. Dry it in the sun or at least not over a fire. This fuse when lighted will not go out if dry, but will burn steadily and slowly. Its rate of burning may be tested by timing a foot of it. All made in one solution will burn at the same rate.

Alfalfa In Ohio.

J. E. Wing, who has done more than any other writer to encourage farmers in Ohio to grow or at least try alfalfa, says that on average soils and with average treatment it is inferior to red clover. It requires very rich soil and to be sown after danger of frost is past on well plowed and well prepared land, either alone or with a very light seeding of oats or a seeding of barley and covered by using a heavy roller. It should be mown three times the first year to make it thrifty. If sown in oats, these should be cut for hay as soon as headed and the alfalfa be mowed and let lie twice more. He also advises trying it only in a small way at first to see if one's soil is suited to it.—Ohio Farmer.

Cold Steel Or Death.

"There is but one small chance to save your life and that is through an operation," was the awful prospect set before Mrs. L. B. Hunt, of Lime Ridge, Wis., by her doctor after vainly trying to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. He didn't count on the marvellous power of Electric Bitters to cure Stomach and Liver troubles, but she heard of it, took seven bottles, was wholly cured, avoided surgeon's knife, now weighs more and feels better than ever. It's positively guaranteed to cure Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles and never disappoints. Price 50 cents cents at R. R. BELLAMY'S drug store. †

THE LATEST AS TO NERVES AND STRENGTH

It is not muscle so much as the nerves back of muscle which show one's strength and power of endurance. And the study with able physicians of to-day is how to keep the nerves in perfect health and fitted for the strain of everyday living. Headache of every type, nerve weakness, dyspepsia, sleeplessness, languor, restlessness, nervous dyspepsia, muscular weakness, brain weariness, poor circulation,—a thousand different unpleasant feelings and symptoms are due to nerve waste and nerve weakness,—especially in women and children. But how can all this be prevented, one will ask? How can my broken-down constitution be repaired, and nerve strength and full, robust health be secured. Just two points to remember: Determine that you will grow strong in nerves and health, and decide to use at once that most famous nerve cure, COCELIN. It is delicious in taste, quick in action and makes the wearied nerves tingle with renewed strength and every function the stronger and faculty the brighter by its use. Druggists sell it.

TWO DESPERATE NEGROES

Shot and Killed by Unknown Parties Near Wellborn, Florida.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

WELLBORN, Fla., June 17.—News reaches here that Tom Thomas and Mose Maxwell, two desperate negroes, were killed late Saturday afternoon on the road, four miles east of this place. Maxwell had worked for W. R. O'Cain, a farmer, and had been in dispute with his employer during the day. He threatened the life of O'Cain, spoke indecently to Mrs. O'Cain, and was driven from the plantation. Subsequently O'Cain went to Live Oak on business and while away Maxwell, in company with Thomas, returned, both heavily armed with guns and pistols, and asked the whereabouts of O'Cain. They left and stationed themselves on the roadside to await the return of the man they hunted. Late in the afternoon a fusilade of shots was heard and the neighbors rushed to the scene to find both negroes dead in the road. There is no evidence as to what party or parties fired the shots.

BRITITH SURPRISED.

Out of Two Hundred and Fifty Only Fifty Escaped—Eighteen Killed.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, June 16.—Lord Kitchener has cabled from Pretoria, under to day's date, as follows:

"Near Welman's Rust, twenty miles south of Middleburg, 250 Victorian mounted rifles from Gen. Reaston's column were surprised in camp at Steenkoolspruit by a superior force of Boers at 7.30 P. M., June 12. The enemy crept up to within short range and poured a deadly fire into the camp, killing two officers and sixteen men and wounding four officers and thirty-eight men, of whom twenty-eight were slightly wounded. Only two officers and fifty men escaped to Gen. Reaston's camp. The remainder were taken prisoners and released. Two pompoms were captured by the enemy. Full details have not yet been received."

RELATIONS WITH PORTO KICO.

Free Trade With the United States Will Probably Soon be Established.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Secretary Hay to-day received the following telegram from Governor Allen, of Porto Rico, at San Juan:

"Unanimous vote to-day, heads of departments fixed the date for the special session of the Legislature for July 4th. The date of the proclamation will be announced at the session."

The proclamation referred to is that which will declare free trade to exist between the United States and Porto Rico after a designated date, in conformity with the terms of the Foraker act which allowed two years to test the ability of the island to sustain itself through internal taxation.

Governor Allen's reports have indicated that under the Hollander act, Porto Rico is now ready to assume free trade.

CASE OF ROLAND B. MOLINEUX.

Argument Begun in the New York Court of Appeals.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 17.—The second plea for the life of Roland B. Molineux, claimed by the law for the mysterious murder, by mailed poison, of Mrs. Katharine J. Adams, in New York, in December, 1898, began today before the Court of Appeals. The respective arguments are in the hands of specially retained counsel, John G. Milburn represents defendant and former United States Senator David Bennett Hill speaks for the people.

The printed record of the case is the largest ever submitted in the State in a criminal case, and upon its consideration during the interim between now and the Fall session of the court, rests the decision. The oral argument submitting the briefs is to be short and it is anticipated that it will be concluded to morrow afternoon.

Herbert W. Bowen, of New York, present minister to Persia, has been transferred to Caracas, succeeding Mr. Loomis as minister to Venezuela.

Lloyd C. Grissom, of Pennsylvania, present first secretary of legation at Constantinople, has been made minister to Persia.

Spencer F. Eddy, of Illinois, present second secretary at Paris, has been made first secretary at Constantinople, to succeed Mr. Grissom.

Arthur B. Blanchard, of Louisiana, has been promoted from third to second secretary at Paris.

By his transfer from Venezeula to Portugal, Minister Loomis, who is now on leave in England, loses $2,500 a year. The salary at Lisbon is $7,500 and that at Caracas $10,000 per annum. But Mr. Loomis finds sufficient compensation in the climatic change and in the probability of more congenial duty at his new post. Beside, his actual rank is the same in either case, namely, minister extraordinary and envoy plenipotentiary.

Mr. Bowen, who becomes the new minister to Venezuela, has a most creditable record in the consular and diplomatic service. He became United States Consul at Barcelona in 1890 and his office at that post was raised to the rank of consulate general five years afterward. Mr. Bowen stuck to his post through the exciting days precedding the Spanish-American war as long as any American could have found safety on Spanish soil. At the conclusion of the war he was about to return to his old post, but instead was appointed minister resident and consul general to Pesia.

The change so far as it concerns the Venezeulan minister is said at the State Department to have no particular political significance. Mr. Loomis goes elsewhere than Caracas at his own request and desire. It is true that the Venezeulan government has expressed dissatisfaction with Mr. Loomis in more ways than one but the general fact that the minister is not removed from the diplomatic service but is given another post of equal dignity and honor is a mark of the esteem of the State Department. Also it may be noted, Mr. Bowen, the new minister, goes to his post with instructions on the same line as those supplied to Mr. Loomis, which formed the basis for his action, so that Mr. Bowen, who is a man of great vigor, is likely to follow Mr. Loomis' footsteps in the matter of policy.

Cailles is collecting his scattered troops. Of these, 147 will surrender Wednesday and the rest will give themselves up next Monday.

There have been several sharp skirmishes in Bohol since the departure of the Forty fourth regiment. The conditions in Cebu are still back ward. It is officially reported that insurgent bands with American deserters are going to Mindoro.

BOER WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

Held as Prisoners by the British—Deaths During Month of May.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, June 17.—Replying to questions in the House of Commons to-day Mr. Broderick, the war secretary, said there were 40,229 persons in the concentration camps of the Transvaal and Orange River Colony. The deaths in these camps for the month of May numbered 98 men and women and 318 children. The announcement of the mortality was received with groans from the Irish members and cries of scandalous.

Mr. Broderick added that the authorities were arranging for the release of the women and children who had friends to receive them, but the government could not undertake to feed them in isolated positions.

NOT YET CAPTURED.

Prince Edwards, the Murderer of John G. Foster, Still at Liberty.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

SHREVEPORT, La., June 17.—Prince Edwards, the murderer of John G. Foster, is still at liberty. The posse has not abandoned its efforts to locate him and the search in Northeast Texas is still in progress, but there does not seem to be any hope for immediate results. The rumor that the negro was captured between Jonesville and Scottsville is an error, as well as the statement circulated this afternoon that Edwards was caught at Monroe. No further effort has been made to lynch the negroes at Benton.

CHARGED WITH ASSAULT WITH INTENT TO KILL.

Thos. G Barker Arraigned for Shooting Rev. John Keller, of Arlington, N. J A Sensational Case.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, June 17.—Thos. G. Barker was placed on trial in the Hudson County Court, Jersey City, to day, before Judge Blair, charged with assault with intent to kill On February 3d last Barker shot the Rev. John Keller, of Arlington, N. J., vicar of Trinity chapel in that place. Barker told the authorities he shot the minister because his wife had told him that Keller had been guilty of a criminal assault upon her. When Keller was shot he was on his way to Fort Lee to assist at the ordination of a minister. Barker stepped out from the shadow of a hedge and fired at him with a revolver. Barker says that he spoke to Keller before firing. Keller says that he did not see his assailant. One of the bullets fired by Barker went through Keller's facial bone from the right side, destroyed the sight of the right eye and, after leading through the nasal bone, buried itself beneath the skin of the left side of the face. A second bullet shattered the fingers of the right hand.

According to Barker's story Mrs. Barker told him shortly before the shooting that about eighteen months previously Mr. Keller called on her while she was alone in the house and made an improper proposal. When she repulsed him, according to the story told by Barker, the minister attacked her violently and she fainted. Barker further said his wife had been afraid to tell him the story of the assault because she knew that if she did he would kill the minister. For some days before the alleged confession Mrs Barker had been in a nervous condition.

Mr. Keller denounced the whole story as utterly false. He declared that his whole life was a refutation of the charge.

The empanelling of the jury occupied less than an hour and then Prosecutor Erwin opened the case for the State:

The prosecution at the outset introduced as evidence a photograph of the hedge behind which, it is alleged, Barker hid while waiting for Keller. Another photograph showing Keller in bed after the shooting was also admitted. Hugh R. Roome and his daughter, eye-witnesses of the shooting, gave their testimony and identified Barker as the man who fired the shots that wounded Keller.

"DOLLY" REYNOLDS' MURDER.

Jury Failed to Agree in the Third Trial of Dr. Kennedy, Charged With the Crime.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, June 16.—The twelve men, who since 12:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the conclusion of the Judge's charge considered the evidence in the third trial of Dr. Samuel J. Kennedy for the murder of "Dolly" Reynolds, reported to Judge Newburger at 10:25 o'clock this morning that they were unable to agree on a verdict. The Judge at once discharged the jury from further service and remanded the prisoner to the Tombs.

When the foreman of the jury announced the inability to agree Dr. Kennedy seemed unable to comprehend the situation. Then the tears came to his eyes, and his face showed the effort he was making to control himself and crush his disappointment. But the smile that had been marked through most of the trial came back quickly and began to grow brighter as he caught the eye of Mr. Moore, his attorney. Immediately after the adjournment of Court the attorneys for the defence saw Judge Newburger in regard to their next step in behalf of Dr. Kennedy. The Judge said that they should see District Attorney Philbin as to whether he would agree upon the course to be pursued. He said that he (the Judge) would be out of town to-morrow, but that they could appear before him on Tuesday to make whatever motion they desired.

Mr. Moore will ask District Attorney Philbin to move the quashing of the indictment, and if the latter does not take this step to free Dr. Kennedy, Mr. Moore himself will make that motion, arguing that the State has shown twice its inability to convict his client of the crime charged, and that the old idea of two disagreements being equivalent to an acquittal ought to prevail in this case.

On the first ballot taken the six who were willing to vote in advance of a discussion of the case, stood: For acquittal 2, for conviction of murder in the first degree 3, for second degree 1. The other six put in blanks.

The first formal ballot resulted: For acquittal 6, for conviction 6.

The next ballot stood: For acquittal 7, for conviction 5.

Thus the jury stood until the sixth ballot was reached, when the result was For acquittal 8, for conviction 4, and four more ballots resulted the same way, ten in all being taken.

EARL RUSSELL ARRESTED.

Charged With Having Contracted a Bigamous Marriage in the United States. Held in £2,000 Bail.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, June 17.—Earl Russell was arrested to day on a charge of having contracted a bigamous marriage in the United States. The Earl was met at the railway station upon his arrival from the country by detectives with a warrant and was taken to the Bow street police court where he was formally charged. The nobleman appeared to be quite unconcerned. Earl Russell was remanded in 2,000 pounds bail.

About a year ago it was announced that Earl Russell had obtained a divorce in Nevada and had there married Mrs. Mollie Somerville, daughter of the late George Cooke, of Cobernauld, Scotland. Mrs Somerville had also obtained a divorce in Nevada from her husband, George J. Somerville. Later the Earl and his new countess went to England and the first countess threatened to have the Earl arrested for bigamy.

MRS. JEFFERSON DAVIS.

Her Health Has Failed Lately—Will Spend Winter in New Orleans.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

ATLANTA, Ga., June 17.—Colonel R. E. Park, State treasurer, has received a letter from Mrs. Jefferson Davis, in which she says in part:

"My dim, uneventful life rolls imperceptibly onward to the inevitable and natural end of all mankind. My health has failed a good deal of late, but I never look sick, and every one tells me how well I am. I expect to spend the winter in New Orleans, as I have many little matters to close up before I go to render account of the deeds done in the body. I am really happy in reading the notices of Mr. Davis' birthday and eulogies on him,"

ATLANTA SPECIAL TRAIN WRECKED.

Turned Broadside Off a Trestle Into a Pond About a Mile North of Rockingham.

TEN O'CLOCK SUNDAY NIGHT.

Twenty-five or Thirty Passengers—All More or Less Injured—No Ladies or Children Seriously Hurt—The Water Waist Deep.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

HAMLET, N. C., June 17.—Last night about 10 o'clock, the northbound Seaboard Air Line Atlanta special turned broadside off a trestle into a pond about a mile north of Rockingham.

There were on board about twenty-five or thirty passengers, all of whom were more or less injured, several very seriously, and two, a white man and a negro, probably fatally. There were three ladies and some children aboard, none of whom was seriously hurt. The engine and two mail cars passed over in safety, but the combination baggage and second first class and two Pullmans turned over broadside. On account of the rains the piers of the trestle gave way on the left side. At the first crash all lights went out and water rushed in waist deep through the windows. All were broken on the underside. At first there were some outcries from the passengers; then all grew quiet and those who had escaped supposed that all were dead.

Baggage Master Smith, though seriously hurt himself, at once thought of the freight following close behind, crashed out a window, crawled out and seizing a lantern, hobbled down the track and flagged the freight, thereby preventing a second catastrophe. When the freight stopped he was lying on the ground unable to rise, but still waving his lantern. He fell time and again before he succeeded in getting far enough back to flag the train. He had to be carried back on a stretcher.

The newsboy also did heroic work, crawling through the cars and helping the almost drowned passengers to escape through the transom over a door.

A relief train came from Hamlet with doctors, and another from Rockingham. The hotel here is being used as a temporary hospital.

BRITISH IN SOMALILAND.

Expedition Against the Mad Mullah Had Heavy Fighting—A Decisive Action is Imminent.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, June 17.—A dispatch to the Foreign Office from the consul general of Somaliland says that the Mad Mullah expedition had heavy fighting May 28th.

The flying column of mounted infantry under Captain Meriweather struck the Mullah's supply camp during a night march and captured 5,000 head of cattle, killed one important chief and captured another, covered one hundred miles, fought a sharp action and returned to its base, all in twenty four hours. The main force of the British under Colonel Swain departed for Eldab, June 2nd, leaving McNeill with 300 men to guard the zariba. Swayne's column advanced against the Mullah's base. In the meantime the Mullah, with 3,000 followers, attacked him three times. He was finally driven off by Captain McNeill with a loss of 500 men. The British in Searaba had ten men killed and nine wounded. The Mullah is cut off from his base and a decisive action is imminent.

THIRTY YEARS EXPERIENCE WITH

BUFFALO LITHIA WATER

The Use of Buffalo Lithia Water in the Clinique.

DR. E. C. LAIRD, formerly of Haw River, N. C., now Resident Physician Hot Springs, N. C.

To the Editors of the New York Medical Times:

I want to state to your readers some of my experience with BUFFALO LITHIA WATER, covering a period of more than thirty years, since my first visit to those now far-famed springs. Each year of my professional life I have used these waters more and more extensively, finding their virtues applicable to a wider range of diseases.

I am thoroughly convinced of the correctness of the views expressed so well by Dr. Hunter McGuire, in the following words, when speaking of the waters of the Buffalo Lithia Springs: "I know from constant use of it personally, and in my practice, that the results obtained from its use are far beyond those which would be warranted by the analysis given. I am of the opinion that it either contains some wonderful remedial agent, as yet undiscovered by medical science, or its elements are so delicately combined in Nature's laboratory that they defy the utmost skill of the chemist to solve the secret of their power."

I have often and repeatedly prescribed the various preparations of lithia and potash, but am thoroughly convinced that the results obtained from the pure

BUFFALO LITHIA WATER are far superior.

I have frequently heard Prof. Wm. T. Howard declare, before his class in the University of Maryland, THAT HE HAD SEEN MORE AND GREATER BENEFIT DERIVED FROM THE USE OF BUFFALO LITHIA WATER THAN FROM ANY OTHER KNOWN MINERAL WATER.

BUFFALO LITHIA WATER Spring No. 1, is unexcelled as an appetizer and promoter of digestion in all forms of dyspepsia or trouble affecting the whole or any part of the alimentary tract.

Physicians and patients all testify to its virtues as a powerful restorative of the broken down or enfeebled system, whether resulting from overwork, worry, or disease. It acts directly in producing a better quality of blood and invigorating and toning up the nervous system generally. Its aphrodisiac properties are very distinctly shown in many cases each year.

As an alkaline diuretic and HEART TONIC, it has proved most efficacious and certain.

In the various forms of LITHEMIA it is especially effective and happy in its action.

HEPATIC disorders, whether of GOUTY or MALARIAL origin and attended with JAUNDICE or BILIARY CALCULI, yield to the action of this Water like magic.

In many cases of DIABETES I have seen most gratifying results from its use.

DISEASES PECULIAR TO WOMEN, AMENORRHŒA, MENORRHAGIA, DYSMENORRHŒA are each and all related and adjusted in a wonderful degree by these waters. Especially is this the case with young and anæmic girls just merging into womanhood.

GOUT, RHEUMATISM, and ALL URIC ACID troubles are markedly relieved by Nos. 1 and 2 BUFFALO LITHIA WATER. I have now under treatment a case of "SENILE or GOUTY HEART," in which my patient is comparatively comfortable, and often able to attend to large business interests, so long as he is fully under the influence of these waters, but to suspend their use for even one day so intensifies all of his symptoms of failing circulation as to utterly prostrate him.

As a solvent and ELIMINATOR of PHOSPHATIC or URIC ACID GRAVEL these waters have never failed me. I have often placed GRAVEL in the fresh water, and, to hasten the disintegrating process, changed the water a few times, when the gravel would first become "honeycombed," and then break down into fine sand. It is this action on LARGE STONE in the KIDNEY, BLADDER, or GALL-BLADDER that causes the continued outpouring of small particles, so often, for days or weeks, with the ultimate complete relief of all those distressing symptoms from which the poor sufferer has so long complained, and sought relief in vain from many physicians." Under the influence of BUFFALO LITHIA WATER No. 2, I knew a patient to PASS SIXTY-EIGHT CALCULI in one day, following an attack of NEPHRITIC COLIC. Another patient (a lady) after a severe attack of HEPATIC COLIC passed ten gallstones in one night, at once experiencing entire relief from most distressing symptoms, from which she had suffered for months.

CYSTITIS and URETHRITIS often yield to the healing influence of these waters at once, when other and standard remedies have failed completely.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE in every stage and form is benefited by these waters. In many cases large amounts of ALBUMEN, EPITHELIUM HYALINE, and GRANULAR CASTS entirely disappeared from the urine, while in those whose kidneys are too far gone to hope for permanent benefit all those distressing symptoms are ameliorated in an astonishing degree.

In NEPHRITIS following SCARLET FEVER the action of these waters is especially gratifying. Invariably put BUFFALO LITHIA WATER as soon as the disease is suspected, my scarlet fever patients on and they have yet to see any kidney trouble follow where this has been done.

In the NAUSEA and VOMITING, URÆMIC POISONING, and ALBUMINURIA of PREGNANCY I know of nothing to compare with BUFFALO LITHIA WATER. So uniformly gratifying has been my experience with this agent that it has long been my habit to prescribe it as a prophylactic, as well as most potent remedy through all the stages of GESTATION.

The water of Spring No. 3 is used in connection with that of both Nos. 1 and 2, wherever there are indications of the need of iron, and especially in those anæmic subjects where a laxative effect is also desired.

My object in this letter is to lead my professional colleagues to think of this agent in cases where they have not before used it, with the belief that the experience will accord with my own, which covers so many years.

Fraternally yours, E. C. LAIRD, M. D.
